Writing a Quality Blog Comment

Write your comment like a letter by including a greeting, content and a closing.

Write a positive comment, ask a question or add new information to the post.

Make sure your comment links to the post.

Do not give any personal information about yourself or others.

Use correct spelling, punctuation, grammar and spacing. Always read over your comment and edit before posting.